119. The United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy

The United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy was adopted by the General Assembly on 8 September 2006 (resolution 60/288). The Strategy, in the form of a resolution and an annexed plan of action, marks the first time that all Member States have agreed to a common strategic approach to fight terrorism. In the Strategy, Member States send a clear message that terrorism is unacceptable in all its forms and manifestations, and resolve to take practical steps individually and collectively to prevent and combat terrorism. Those practical steps include a wide array of measures to address conditions conducive to the spread of terrorism, prevent and combat terrorist activities and build State capacity to fight terrorism and strengthen the role of the United Nations in that regard, all while ensuring respect for human rights. Overall, the adoption of the Strategy fulfils the commitment made by world leaders at the World Summit in September 2005.

Since its sixtieth session, the General Assembly has considered the item biennially (resolutions 60/288, 62/272, 64/297, 66/10, 66/282 and 68/276).

At its seventieth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to review, in consultation with the Assembly, the capability of the United Nations system to assist Member States, upon their request, in implementing the Strategy in a balanced manner, including by strengthening cooperation with other international and regional organizations and improving the mobilization of resources necessary for capacity-building projects, with a view to providing concrete suggestions to the Assembly in this regard, by May 2017, for consideration by the Assembly during its seventy-first session (resolution 70/291).

The Board of Auditors transmits to the General Assembly the audited financial statements for the relevant financial periods of the various accounts of the United Nations and other funds and programmes for which the Board has audit responsibility. Under the provisions of article VII of the Financial Regulations of the United Nations and the annex thereto, the Board submits reports to the Assembly on the results of its audits and issues opinions as to whether the financial statements properly reflect the recorded transactions and whether those transactions were in accordance with the Financial Regulations and legislative authority and present fairly the financial position as at the end of the financial period of each of the activities reported on, as well as in accordance with the International Public Sector Accounting Standards. The reports of the Board are commented upon by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, which also submits their reports thereon to the Assembly.

At its seventieth session, the General Assembly accepted the financial reports and audited financial statements and the reports and audit opinions of the Board of Auditors for the above-mentioned entities, approved the conclusions and recommendations contained in the reports of the Board of Auditors and endorsed the observations and recommendations contained in the related report of the Advisory Committee. The Assembly commended the Board for the continued high quality of its reports. The Assembly took note of the reports of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the recommendations of the Board of Auditors contained in its reports for the year ended 31 December 2014 and expressed concern about the continued deficiencies and weaknesses identified by the Board, requesting the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to address those weaknesses as a matter of priority. The Assembly also expressed concern about the cross-cutting and systemic risks identified in the other United Nations entities, and requested the Secretary-General, in his capacity as Chair of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination, to invite the heads of the entities to take corrective actions. The Assembly stressed the need to take measures to address deficiencies with respect to control and fraud prevention, including through the development of comprehensive fraud risk assessments and counter-fraud strategies, the issuance of a standard definition of fraud and standard operating procedures for fraud prevention. The Assembly reiterated the following requests to the Secretary-General: (a) to ensure the full implementation of the recommendations of the Board of Auditors and the related recommendations of the Advisory Committee in a prompt and timely manner; (b) to continue to hold programme managers accountable for the non-implementation of recommendations and to effectively address the root causes of the problems highlighted by the Board; (c) to provide in his reports on the implementation of the recommendations a full explanation for the delays in the implementation of the recommendations, in particular those not yet fully implemented that are two or more years old; and (d) to indicate in future reports an expected time frame for the implementation of the recommendations, as well as the priorities for their implementation and the office holders to be held accountable. The Assembly stressed that the report of the Board of Auditors on the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund should be submitted separately, as was the case with other United Nations entities, and decided that a copy should continue to be annexed to the report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board (resolution 70/238 A).

At the first part of its resumed seventieth session, the General Assembly accepted the reports of the Board of Auditors on the strategic heritage plan of the United Nations Office at Geneva and on progress in the handling of information and communications technology affairs in the Secretariat and approved the recommendations contained therein. The Assembly took note of the reports of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the recommendations of the Board of Auditors contained in those reports, and endorsed the conclusions and recommendations contained in the related reports of the Advisory Committee, subject to the provisions of the resolution (resolution 70/238 B).

At the second part of its resumed seventieth session, the General Assembly accepted the financial report and audited financial statements of the United Nations peacekeeping operations for the 12-month period from 1 July 2014 to 30 June 2015 and took note of the report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the recommendations of the Board on the subject. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to ensure the full implementation of the recommendations of the Board and the related recommendations of the Advisory Committee in a prompt and timely manner, to continue to indicate an expected time frame for the implementation of the recommendations and the priorities for their implementation, including the office holders to be held accountable and measures taken in that regard, to provide a full explanation for the delays in the implementation of all outstanding recommendations, the root causes of the recurring issues and the measures to be taken, and to continue his efforts to hold staff members accountable, in particular senior managers, for mismanagement and poor decision-making leading to financial loss for the Organization. The Assembly expressed concern about the continued weaknesses in the areas of budget formulation and implementations, asset management, travel management, procurement and contracting, management of construction projects, information and communications technology and the global field support strategy, and in that regard requested the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to address those weaknesses, as a matter of priority, taking into account the comments, observations and recommendations of the Board of Auditors (resolution 70/238 C).

133. Review of the efficiency of the administrative and financial functioning of the United Nations

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly reaffirmed its resolution 41/213, in which it requested the Secretary-General to submit in off-budget years an outline of the proposed programme budget for the following biennium, and reaffirmed its request to the Secretary-General to propose, in future budget submissions, measures to offset budget increases, wherever possible, without undermining the implementation of mandated programme activities (resolution 69/264) (see item 135).

At its seventieth session, the General Assembly reaffirmed the terms of reference of the Independent Audit Advisory Committee, as contained in the annex to resolution 61/275, and invited the Committee to continue to examine the operational independence of the Office of Internal Oversight Services, in particular in the area of investigation functions (resolution 70/111) (also relates to item 144).

At its resumed seventieth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to include information on the status of the implementation of relevant Assembly resolutions on administrative and budgetary matters, in the context of the individual reports on matters that are addressed in the corresponding agenda items, and to ensure that comprehensive information on the implementation of such resolutions was contained in the biennial programme performance report. The Assembly reaffirmed that results-based management and performance reporting were essential pillars of a comprehensive accountability framework; and recognized the importance of results-based management and the need to strengthen the capacity of the Secretariat for programme monitoring and reporting and requested an update on measures taken in the context of the sixth progress report. The Assembly reiterated its request to the Secretary-General to include in the sixth progress report a detailed plan, with a fixed time frame and clear milestones, for the implementation of results-based management as part of the regular functioning of the Organization, and to take further, concrete measures to develop capacity for evaluation within the Secretariat programmes, with support provided by the Office of Internal Oversight Services and external oversight bodies in terms of guidance and methodological advice. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to develop a clear, transparent and precise set of guidelines and parameters, aimed at defining areas of responsibility, in particular for senior managers, as well as non-compliance in respect of those areas of responsibility. It reiterated its requests to the Secretary-General to take further concrete measures to ensure that the compacts system became a meaningful and powerful instrument of accountability, to take actions to address systemic issues that prevented managers from meeting their targets, in particular those related to compliance with the recruitment timeline, and to report to the Assembly on the progress achieved in this regard in the context of the sixth progress report. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to take a more strategic approach and concrete actions to implement the accountability framework and to include in the progress reports comprehensive and tangible assessments of actions, activities and progress made by the Secretariat, to continue to submit for its consideration an annual report on progress made towards the implementation of the accountability framework, and to report to the Assembly at the first part of its resumed seventy-first session on the implementation of the accountability framework, and decided to revert to the question of the frequency of future progress reports on accountability in the context of that report (resolution 70/255).

At its seventieth session, the General Assembly approved the strategic heritage plan project scope in the maximum amount of SwF 836,500,000 for the period from 2014 to 2023 and authorized the renovation and construction phases of the project to begin. The Assembly also authorized the Secretary-General to establish a multi-year construction-in-progress account for the expenditure related to the strategic heritage plan for 2014-2016. The Assembly welcomed the loan package offered by the Government of Switzerland, approved the financing of the project in part through a loan at a zero interest rate from the host country and authorized the Secretary-General to formally apply for the loan in the amount of SwF 400 million. The Assembly decided to revert to the establishment of an assessment scheme and currency of appropriation and assessment for the strategic heritage plan at the main part of the seventy-first session and requested the Secretary-General to provide updated detailed information on these issues. The Assembly also decided to revert to the establishment of the multi-year special account for the strategic heritage plan at the main part of the seventy-first session and requested the Secretary-General, in the context of the next progress report, to include detailed information on possible measures that could be taken to avoid negative interest rates in relation to the currency holdings of the United Nations. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to continue to explore the possibility of attracting additional United Nations entities to be accommodated at the renovated Palais des Nations; to ensure that the implementation project takes into account measures to eliminate physical, communications and technical barriers to persons with disabilities; and to report on the subject in future annual progress reports (resolution 70/248 A, sect. X).

At the same session, the General Assembly authorized the Secretary-General to enter into commitments in an amount not exceeding $7,547,300 in the first year of the biennium 2016-2017 for the implementation of the decisions contained in the Addis Ababa Action Agenda of the Third International Conference on Financing for Development and the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development (resolution 70/248 A, sect. XI).

The General Assembly, in its resolution 70/247, recalled its resolutions 69/313 and 70/1 and requested the Secretary-General to provide, at the first part of its resumed seventieth session, a comprehensive proposal addressing the effective and efficient delivery of mandates in support of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the Addis Ababa Action Agenda by the Secretariat, within the broader United Nations system, including the Department of Economic and Social Affairs, the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, the regional commissions and the United Nations Development Account. At its resumed seventieth session, the Assembly endorsed the conclusions and recommendations contained in the report of the Advisory Committee, which requested the Secretary-General to submit, without further delay and no later than during the main part of the seventy-first session, a comprehensive proposal that addressed the effective and efficient delivery of mandates in support of the two Agendas, as requested by the Assembly in resolution 70/247, and that took into account the Committee's observations and comments, in particular, it should present the total related resources, together with a request for appropriation, for the consideration and decision of the Assembly (resolution 70/248 C, sect. I).

At its seventieth session, the General Assembly authorized the Secretary-General to enter into commitments in an amount not to exceed $400,000, to cover expenses required to update the project proposal and costing estimates for multiphase and single-phase implementation methods, including an option to address the seismic risk on its own and an option in combination with renovation, life-cycle replacement or other works, ensuring the most cost-effective and efficient method of implementation. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to report on the use of the commitment authority in the context of the first performance report on the programme budget for the biennium 2016-2017, and requested the Secretary-General to submit a revised proposal for the seismic mitigation retrofit and life-cycle replacement project at the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific to the Assembly for its consideration at the main part of its seventy-first session (resolution 70/248 A, sect. XII).

Also at its seventieth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit a refined and detailed proposal on the global service delivery model to the Assembly at its seventy-first session, to provide information to support the business case for such a model, including comprehensive baseline information on the provision of services for each process, to provide proposals for a cost-sharing formula for future requirements related to the implementation of the global service delivery model, and to include staff costs as one of the criteria in his evaluation of possible locations for administrative services. The Assembly reiterated the importance of ensuring that the global service delivery model fully took into account lessons learned and best practices of all ongoing business transformation initiatives so as to maximize benefits and avoid possible duplication and overlap and requested the Secretary-General to provide in his detailed proposal information on the efforts to ensure such coherence, including information on the use of common infrastructure and resources. The Assembly also requested the Secretary-General to cover the requirements for consultancy fees within the allocation for section 29, Management and support services, of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2016-2017 (resolution 70/248 A, sect. At its twenty-ninth session, in 1974, the General Assembly established the Committee on Conferences, composed of 22 Member States (resolution 3351 (XXIX)).

At its forty-third session, the General Assembly decided to retain the Committee on Conferences as a permanent subsidiary organ composed of 21 members to be appointed by the President of the Assembly, after consultations with the chairs of the regional groups, for a period of three years (resolution 43/222 B) (see also item 116 (g)).

At its seventieth session, the General Assembly noted with satisfaction that the Secretariat had taken into account the arrangements referred to in relevant resolutions of the General Assembly concerning Orthodox Good Friday, Yom Kippur, Day of Vesak, Diwali, GURPURAB, Orthodox Christmas and the official holidays of Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha, and requested all relevant intergovernmental bodies to continue to observe the applicable decisions when planning their meetings (resolution 70/9, sect. I).

At the same session, the General Assembly welcomed the efforts undertaken by the Secretary-General to increase the utilization rates of conference-servicing resources, and in that regard encouraged the Secretary-General to enhance the efficiency of conference servicing and to report thereon to the Assembly at its seventy-first session, and requested the Secretary-General to continue his efforts aimed at improving conference servicing at the four main duty stations, including through addressing or eliminating possible duplication, overlap and redundancy, and identifying innovative ideas, potential synergies and other cost-saving measures, without compromising quality or affecting the provision of services, and to report annually on the progress made in that regard (resolution 70/9, sect. II).

Also at that session, the General Assembly emphasized the need to continue to improve all conference facilities, including the videoconferencing infrastructure, in all four main duty stations and in the regional commissions, and in that regard requested the Secretary-General to report thereon no later than at the seventy-first session of the Assembly, and welcomed the measures taken to ensure access to and use of conference services and conference facilities for persons with disabilities, including the establishment of the Accessibility Centre, and encouraged the Secretary-General to continue further efforts in that regard and to report thereon to the Assembly at its seventy-first session. The General Assembly noted with appreciation the efforts of the Secretary-General in the context of the integrated global management initiative to establish and implement in the four main duty stations common performance indicators and single information technology systems, such as gData, gDoc, gMeets and gText, and requested the Secretary-General to report thereon to the Assembly at its seventy-first session (resolution 70/9, sects. II and III).

At its seventieth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to continue to report to the Assembly on concrete measures taken by author departments and the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management to improve the predictability of document delivery and ensure accountability for the meeting of deadlines in order to ensure the timely issuance of documentation (resolution 70/9, sect. IV).

At the same session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to make further concerted efforts to promote outreach programmes, such as traineeships and internships, and to introduce innovative methods to increase awareness of the programmes, including through partnerships with Member States, relevant international organizations and language institutions in all regions, in particular to close the wide gap in Africa and in the Latin American and Caribbean region, and to report thereon at its seventy-first session (resolution 70/9, sect. V).

Also at that session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to refrain from making any change of a substantive nature to agreed texts of both draft and adopted resolutions and to report thereon to the Assembly at its seventy-first session (resolution 70/9, sect. V).

138. Scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of the United Nations

The regular budget of the United Nations is apportioned among its Member States in accordance with the scale of assessments approved by the General Assembly on the recommendation of the Committee on Contributions (see item 114 (b)). The scale of assessments has also been used to apportion the costs of the capital master plan. The scale, as modified by the provisions of resolutions 55/235 and 55/236 and other resolutions concerning the financing of peacekeeping operations, has also been used to apportion the cost of peacekeeping operations among Member States. The assessment rates used for the regular budget and peacekeeping operations are also used for apportioning the costs of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals.

At its fifty-fourth session, in 1999, the General Assembly decided that requests for exemption under Article 19 of the Charter must be submitted by Member States to the President of the Assembly at least two weeks before the session of the Committee on Contributions, so as to ensure a complete review of the requests (resolution 54/237 C).

At its fifty-seventh session, the General Assembly endorsed the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee on Contributions concerning multi-year payment plans, as contained in paragraphs 17 to 23 of its report (A/57/11). Among those recommendations were that the Secretary-General should be requested to provide information on the submission of multi-year payment plans to the Assembly through the Committee and to submit an annual report to the Assembly through the Committee on the status of Member States' payment plans as at 31 December each year (resolution 57/4 B).

At its seventieth session, the General Assembly adopted a scale of assessments for the period from 2016 to 2018, based on the recommendations of the Committee on Contributions and using the same methodology applied to the preparation of the scale of assessments for the previous five scale periods. The Assembly requested the Committee, in accordance with rule 160 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly, to consider all relevant data in appeals submitted by Member States that might affect their capacity to pay, and encouraged Member States to submit national accounts data under the 1993 and the 2008 System of National Accounts on a timely basis. The Assembly also requested the Committee, in accordance with its mandate and the rules of procedure of the Assembly, to review and make recommendations on the elements of the methodology of the scale of assessments in order to reflect the capacity of Member States to pay, and to report thereon to the Assembly by the main part of its seventy-third session (resolution 70/245).

At its sixty-eighth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Assembly for consideration at its seventieth session a report regarding developments on the secondment of active-duty military and police personnel and, if necessary, a new proposal (resolution 68/252, sect. VI).

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly, under the item entitled “Review of the efficiency of the administrative and financial functioning of the United Nations”, decided to defer consideration of the following reports of the Secretary-General:

140. Joint Inspection Unit

At its twenty-first session, in 1966, the General Assembly established the Joint Inspection Unit for an initial period of four years (resolution 2150 (XXI)), and subsequently decided to continue the Unit until 31 December 1973 (resolution 2735 A (XXV)) and then for a further period of four years beyond that date (resolution 2924 B (XXVII)). At its thirty-first session, the Assembly approved the statute of the Unit as a subsidiary organ of the Assembly and of the legislative bodies of the specialized agencies that accepted the new statute (resolution 31/192). The membership of the Unit was increased from 8 to not more than 11 Inspectors, with effect from 1 January 1978.

The General Assembly continued to reaffirm the statute of the Unit and its unique and independent system-wide role in the areas of inspection, evaluation and investigation at various sessions from its forty-eighth to seventieth sessions (resolutions 48/221, 50/233, 54/16, 60/258, 61/238, 61/260, 62/226, 62/246, 63/272, 64/262, 65/270, 66/259, 67/256, 68/266, 69/275 and 70/257).

At its fiftieth session, in June 1996, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General, and invited the executive heads of organizations participating in the Unit, to take the necessary measures to ensure that the thematic reports of the Unit were listed under the appropriate substantive agenda items of the work programmes of the Assembly, other pertinent organs and bodies of the United Nations and the appropriate legislative organs of the other participating organizations (resolution 50/233).

At its fifty-fourth session, the General Assembly endorsed the follow-up system annexed to the Unit's report (A/52/34) and invited the Unit to include in its annual reports approved recommendations that had not been implemented (resolution 54/16).

At its fifty-fifth session, the General Assembly decided to consider the annual reports of the Unit on an annual basis (resolution 55/230).

At its fifty-ninth session, the General Assembly decided that the Unit should include in its annual reports information on implementation and the results achieved by organizations in respect of their follow-up to the recommendations of the Unit, as endorsed by their legislative bodies, and the arrangements put in place by participating organizations for reporting thereon (resolution 59/267).

At its sixty-first session the General Assembly requested that reports of the Unit include information on savings, acceptance rate of recommendations and implementation status by impact category (resolution 61/238, sect. I).

At the same session, the General Assembly decided to consider jointly the annual report and programme of work of the Unit starting from the sixty-second session (resolution 61/260).

At its sixty-second session, the General Assembly invited the Unit to report in the context of its annual reports on experience in the implementation of the follow-up system by the participating organizations (resolution 62/246).

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly reiterated its requests that the Unit issue its reports in all the official languages of the United Nations, well in advance of meetings of the legislative organs of participating organizations. The Assembly also reiterated its request to the executive heads of the participating organizations to fully comply with the statutory procedures for consideration of the reports of the Unit, to make full use of the web-based system of the Unit and to provide an in-depth analysis of how the recommendations of the Unit are being implemented (resolution 69/275).

At its seventieth session, the General Assembly commended the Unit on its fiftieth anniversary and considered the Unit's report for the year 2015 and programme of work for 2016. The Assembly welcomed the coordination of the Unit with the Board of Auditors and the Office of Internal Oversight Services and encouraged them to continue to share experiences, knowledge, best practices and lessons learned, without prejudice to their respective mandates (resolution 70/257).

At the same session, the General Assembly noted with concern the long-vacant posts in the Unit and noted the need to enhance the effectiveness of its system-wide oversight capability. The Assembly stressed the importance of the Unit in providing the Assembly and other legislative organs with practical and action-oriented recommendations to improve and strengthen the governance of the United Nations as a whole. The Assembly invited the Unit to develop indicators to measure system-wide efficiency and effectiveness achieved as a result of the implementation of its recommendations (resolution 70/257).

Also at the same session, the General Assembly reiterated its requests to the Secretary-General to fully assist the Unit with the timely provision of all information requested and to consider options for hosting the website of the Unit in-house and to report on that matter in the context of the forthcoming report on the implementation of the information and communications strategy for the Secretariat. The Assembly also reiterated its request to the Unit to consider optimizing the number of projects in its programme of work through prioritization (resolution 70/257).

141. United Nations common system

The General Assembly, by its resolution 3042 (XXVII), decided in principle to establish an international civil service commission for the regulation and coordination of the conditions of service of the United Nations common system. By its resolution 3357 (XXIX), the Assembly approved the statute of the International Civil Service Commission. The United Nations common system comprises 13 organizations that have accepted the Commission's statute and, together with the United Nations itself, participate in the United Nations common system of salaries and allowances. Other organizations have not formally accepted the statute but fully participate in the Commission's work or apply the common system of salaries, allowances and benefits. Under its statute, the Commission is required to submit an annual report to the Assembly, which is also to be transmitted to the governing organs of the other organizations of the common system, through their executive heads.

At its seventieth session, the General Assembly recalled its request, contained in its resolution 69/251, that the Commission continue to monitor progress in achieving gender balance, and requested the Commission to provide information to the Assembly at its seventy-first session on the progress made by organizations of the common system in the implementation of existing gender policies and measures towards achieving the goal of 50/50 gender balance in the common system. The Assembly invited the Commission to present a progress report on the implementation of the new common system compensation package to the Assembly at its seventy-first session and a comprehensive assessment report, including a global staff survey on the conditions of service, no later than at its seventy-fifth session (resolution 70/244).

142. United Nations pension system

The United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, the Regulations for which were adopted initially by the General Assembly at its third session, in 1948 (resolution 248 (III)), is administered by the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board, currently consisting of 33 members, one third of whom are elected by the Assembly and the corresponding legislative bodies of the other member organizations, one third by the executive heads of those organizations and one third by the participants.

The Fund comprises the United Nations and 22 other member organizations. As at 31 December 2015, the total number of active participants was 126,892 and there were 71,474 periodic benefits in award.

At its forty-sixth session, in 1991, the General Assembly decided to consider this item on a biennial basis, in even-numbered years (resolution 46/220).

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly took note of the report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board for 2014, in particular the actions taken by the Board as set out in chapter II.B of the report (resolution 69/113).

The Pension Board held its sixty-third session at the headquarters of the International Atomic Energy Agency, in Vienna, from 14 to 22 July 2016. It recommended to the General Assembly the approval of: (a) an amendment to article 41 of the Fund's Regulations, as provided in annex XIII to the report of the Board, to reflect the adoption of the medical standard of "fit for employment" for participation in the Fund; (b) a technical amendment to clarify the language of article 24 of the Fund's Regulations, as set out in annex XIII to the report of the Board; and (c) an amendment to paragraph 26 of the Fund's pension adjustment system to reflect that, in cases of reinstatement, a new local currency track benefit would be established as of the date of reinstatement using the 36-month average of exchange rates ending as of that date, as set out in annex XV to the report of the Board. The Board also decided to recommend the approval of total additional resources relating to the biennium 2016-2017 in the amount of $3,228,700. The revised budget for the biennium 2016-2017 would then amount to $182,307,000.

The increase is related primarily to non-post resources for 20 general temporary assistance positions in order to create a task force to address the recent surge in separations, including support for communications and an end-to-end review of the process.

143. Administrative and budgetary coordination of the United Nations with the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency

Article 17, paragraph 3, of the Charter of the United Nations provides that the General Assembly shall examine the administrative budgets of the specialized agencies referred to in Article 57 with a view to making recommendations to the agencies concerned. General Assembly resolution 14 (I) provides that one of the functions of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions is to examine on behalf of the Assembly the administrative budgets of the specialized agencies and proposals for financial arrangements with such agencies. This provision is repeated in rule 157 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly. At its forty-seventh session, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit the next statistical report by the Administrative Committee on Coordination to the Assembly at its forty-ninth session and thereafter every second year, and to add to the material covered therein information on assessed and voluntary contributions paid by Member States and non-Member States in each of the two prior calendar years (decision 47/449).

The General Assembly considered this item biennially from its forty-ninth to sixty-fifth sessions (decisions 49/465, 51/453, 53/459, 55/472, 57/557, 57/558, 59/548, 61/548, 63/547 and 65/541).

At its resumed sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General, in his capacity as Chair of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination, to coordinate the annual compilation of analysis relating to the financial situation of organizations participating in the common system, including a focus on the budgetary implications of adjustments to all elements of staff costs, both for the most recently completed calendar year and, on the basis of projections, for the subsequent calendar year, and to submit the related report to the General Assembly at its sixty-ninth session (decision 67/553 B).

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly took note of the note by the Secretary-General transmitting the statistical report of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination on the budgetary and financial situation of the organizations of the United Nations system and decided to revert to the issue of the composition of the report (decision 69/551).

144. Report on the activities of the Office of Internal Oversight Services

The Office of Internal Oversight Services (OIOS) was established in 1994 by the General Assembly in its resolution 48/218 B. The Assembly decided to include in the provisional agenda of its fiftieth session an item entitled “Report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Office of Internal Oversight Services”.

The General Assembly continued its consideration of the item at its fiftieth and fifty-fourth to fifty-seventh sessions (resolutions 50/239, 54/244, 55/259, 56/246 and 57/287 A to C).

At its fifty-ninth session, the General Assembly, under the item entitled “Review of the implementation of Assembly resolutions 48/218 B and 54/244”, requested the Secretary-General to ensure that annual and semi-annual reports submitted by OIOS to the Assembly contained the titles and brief summaries of all other reports of the Office issued during the year and that original versions of the reports of the Office not submitted to the Assembly were, upon request, made available to any Member State; and further decided that reports of the Office should be submitted directly to the Assembly as submitted by the Office and that the comments of the Secretary-General might be submitted in a separate report (resolution 59/272).

The General Assembly considered the item at its sixtieth session (resolutions 60/255, sect. I, 60/257 and 60/259 and decision 60/551 A).

At its sixtieth session, the General Assembly, under the agenda item entitled “Report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Office of Internal Oversight Services”, modified the title of the agenda item to read “Report on the activities of the Office of Internal Oversight Services” in accordance with paragraph 3 of resolution 59/272 (resolution 60/259).

The General Assembly considered the item at its sixty-first to sixty-ninth sessions (resolutions 61/275, 61/279, 62/87, 62/225, 62/232, 62/236, 62/247, 63/248, 63/265, 64/232, 65/250, 66/236, 68/21 and 69/252).

At its sixty-fourth session, under the item entitled “Review of the implementation of General Assembly resolutions 48/218 B, 54/244 and 59/272”, the Assembly endorsed the observations, comments and recommendations on the effectiveness, efficiency and impact of OIOS contained in the annex to the annual report of the Independent Audit Advisory Committee (A/64/288) (resolution 64/263).

At its sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to entrust the Office with publishing audit reports on the website of the Office, on an experimental basis, and decided that a final decision on the continuation of the experiment should be made in the context of the review of the mandate of the Office to be conducted during the sixty-ninth session of the Assembly (resolution 67/258).

At its sixty-ninth session, the General Assembly reaffirmed the independence and separate and distinct roles of the internal and external oversight mechanisms and encouraged United Nations internal and external oversight bodies to further enhance the level of their cooperation with one another. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to continue to ensure the full implementation of the accepted recommendations of the Office, including those relating to cost avoidance, recovery of overpayments, efficiency gains and other improvements, in a prompt and timely manner, and to provide detailed justifications in cases in which recommendations of the Office were not accepted. It emphasized the need for the Office to continue to refine its risk-based workplan in order to ensure that it fully captures high-risk areas such as those relating to procurement activities at the mission level as well as those related to fraud, including by contractors and implementing partners.

At its seventieth session, the General Assembly stressed the need for the Office to increase emphasis on investigations involving cases of fraud, and recognized its role in supporting the Organization to assess, analyse and act upon all fraud risks. The Assembly encouraged the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to update the administrative instructions related to the work of the Office, in particular ST/AI/371 and ST/AI/371/Amend.1, so as to ensure that they reflected the mandate of the Office as well as of other investigation functions. In addition, the Assembly noted the lengthy delays in the average time to complete investigations and emphasized the need for the Office to take appropriate steps to address those delays as a matter of priority and to report thereon in the context of future annual reports. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to continue to make every effort to fill the remaining vacant posts, particularly in the Investigations Division and in the field, in accordance with the relevant provisions governing recruitment in the United Nations. The Assembly noted the ongoing professional initiatives aimed at strengthening the functioning of the Office, encouraged continued efforts in that regard, including an assessment of working relationships across the divisions, and looked forward to updates in the context of future annual reports (resolution 70/111).

145. Administration of justice at the United Nations

The General Assembly considered the item at its fifty-fifth to fifty-ninth and sixty-first to seventieth sessions (resolutions 55/258, 57/307, 59/283, 62/228, 63/253, 64/119, 64/233, 65/251, 66/237, 67/241, 68/254, 69/203 and 70/112, and decisions 56/458 C, 58/576, 61/503 A, 63/531, 64/527, 64/553 and 65/213).

At its sixty-second session, the General Assembly established: (a) a two-tier formal system of administration of justice, comprising a first instance United Nations Dispute Tribunal and an appellate instance United Nations Appeals Tribunal; (b) the Office of Administration of Justice, comprising the Office of the Executive Director, the Office of Staff Legal Assistance and the Registries for the United Nations Dispute Tribunal and the United Nations Appeals Tribunal; (c) a single integrated and decentralized Office of the Ombudsman for the United Nations Secretariat, funds and programmes with branches in several duty stations and a new mediation division; (d) the Internal Justice Council; and (e) the Management Evaluation Unit in the Office of the Under-Secretary-General for Management (resolution 62/228).

At its sixty-third session, the General Assembly adopted the statutes of the United Nations Dispute Tribunal and the United Nations Appeals Tribunal and decided that those Tribunals would be operational as of 1 July 2009 and that all persons who had access to the Office of the Ombudsman under the previous system would also have access to the new informal system (resolution 63/253).

Consideration of the item in the Fifth Committee

At its seventieth session, the General Assembly recalled its decision that the interim independent assessment, established to examine the system of administration of justice in all its aspects, should include consideration of the relationship between the formal and informal systems and an analysis of whether the aims and objectives of the system set out in resolution 61/261 were being achieved in an efficient and cost-effective manner. The Assembly welcomed the establishment of the panel of experts to conduct the assessment, trusted that the recommendations of the panel and the related comments of the Secretary-General would be comprehensive and would cover all major aspects of the system of administration of justice; recalled that the objective of the assessment was the improvement of the current system; and reaffirmed its request to the Secretary-General to transmit the recommendations of the panel of experts, together with its final report and his comments thereon, for consideration by the Assembly at its seventy-first session. The Assembly decided to extend the three ad litem judge positions in the United Nations Dispute Tribunal for one year, from 1 January to 31 December 2016. It stressed that any decision regarding the possible conversion of ad litem positions to full-time positions and the eligibility criteria for the future permanent positions, including the eligibility of the current ad litem judges, should be taken after consideration of the recommendations of the panel of independent experts on that matter, as well as the related comments of the Secretary-General, during the Assembly's seventy-first session (resolution 70/112, sect. I).

At the same session, with regard to the informal system, the General Assembly welcomed the recommendations to address systemic and cross-cutting issues contained in the report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Office of the United Nations Ombudsman and Mediation Services (A/70/151) and requested the Secretary-General to report on progress made in the implementation of those recommendations in his next report. It commended efforts to resolve cases prior to litigation, including through enhanced conflict competence and cooperation between the formal and informal parts of the system of administration of justice, encouraged the Office to continue its outreach activities at all duty stations to promote informal dispute resolution and stressed the importance of improving performance management and communication between staff members to help to address the root causes of disputes. The Assembly recognized that access to the Office was a challenge for staff in the field, including for those in special political missions, encouraged the development of innovative measures to address those challenges and requested the Secretary-General to report thereon to the Assembly at the main part of its seventy-first session. It also encouraged the Office to continue to be involved in the progressive development and refinement of human resources policies and practices. The Assembly requested that information on the number and nature of cases from non-staff personnel continue to be clearly set out in future reports on the activities of the Office. It reiterated its request to the Secretary-General to ensure that the revised terms of reference and guidelines for the Office were promulgated, as a matter of priority, by the end of February 2016 at the latest (resolution 70/112, sect. II).

Also at the same session, with regard to the formal system, the General Assembly recognized the ongoing positive contribution of the Office of Staff Legal Assistance to the system of administration of justice, and its importance as a filter in the system, and encouraged the Office to continue to advise staff on the merits of their cases, especially when giving summary or preventive legal advice. It decided to extend the experimental period for the voluntary supplementing funding mechanism with respect to additional resources for the Office (by way of a payroll deduction not exceeding 0.05 per cent of a staff member's monthly net base salary, in accordance with paragraph 33 of resolution 68/254) from 1 January to 31 December 2016; stressed the need to continue to explore means to raise awareness among staff of the importance of financial contributions to the Office; requested the Secretary-General to strengthen incentives for staff not to opt out of the voluntary supplemental funding mechanism, particularly in locations where the participation level was low, to continue to collect and examine data relating to staff contributions to the Office and to report thereon to the Assembly in his next report. The Assembly also requested the Secretary-General to continue to track the data on the number of cases received by the Management Evaluation Unit and the Dispute Tribunal in order to identify any emerging trends and to include his observations on those statistics in future reports, to include information on disputes involving non-staff personnel in the context of both management evaluation and informal mediation in his future reports and to provide information on existing measures to institutionalize good management practices that aimed to avoid or mitigate disputes involving the various categories of non-staff personnel. The Assembly noted with concern the increase in the number of pending cases before the Dispute Tribunal and the high cost to the Organization due to financial compensation paid to staff, and in that regard encouraged further efforts to handle cases in an effective and efficient manner, including through enhanced cooperation between the formal and informal parts of the system of administration of justice and proactive case management by the judges of the Tribunal. It requested the Secretary-General to ensure the accountability of managers whose decisions have been established to be grossly negligent, according to the applicable Staff Regulations and Rules of the United Nations, and which have led to litigation and subsequent financial loss, and to provide further information with regard to the effectiveness of the Management Evaluation Unit as a first step in the formal system of administration of justice and its review of administrative decisions taken by managers that could potentially have legal and financial implications for the Organization, and to report thereon to the Assembly at its seventy-first session. The Assembly reiterated its request to the Secretary-General to report on, at the main part of the seventy-first session, the implementation of the amendment to article 11, paragraph 3, of the statute of the Dispute Tribunal and to article 7, paragraph 5, of the statute of the Appeals Tribunal, including with respect to the administrative implications, any implications for the timely disposal of the cases, the ultimate disposition of appeals of orders, if any, and any costs saved by reason of stays pending such appeals. The Assembly approved the proposal of the Secretary-General to harmonize the privileges and immunities of the judges of the Dispute and Appeals Tribunals and decided to amend article 4 of the statute of the Dispute Tribunal and article 3 of the statute of the Appeals Tribunal; approved the proposal of the Secretary-General to prescribe that the filing of an appeal should suspend the execution of the judgment or order contested, and decided to amend article 8 of the rules of procedure of the Appeals Tribunal accordingly; and approved the proposal of the Secretary-General with respect to the mechanism for addressing complaints regarding alleged misconduct or incapacity of the judges of the Tribunals, and decided to adopt the mechanism with the amendment proposed by the Sixth Committee and annexed to resolution 70/112. It requested the Secretary-General to publish the statutes of the Dispute and Appeals Tribunal, as amended since their initial adoption, as soon as possible but no later than at its seventy-first session. The Assembly reiterated its request to the Secretary-General to submit, no later than at the main part of its seventy-first session, a single code of conduct for all legal representatives (resolution 70/112, sect. III).

Also at its seventieth session, the General Assembly stressed that the Internal Justice Council could help to ensure independence, professionalism and accountability in the system of administration of justice and requested the Secretary-General to entrust the Council with including the views of both the Dispute Tribunal and the Appeals Tribunal in its reports. In addition, the Assembly invited the Sixth Committee to consider the legal aspects of the report to be submitted by the Secretary-General, without prejudice to the role of the Fifth Committee as the Main Committee entrusted with responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters (resolution 70/112, sect. IV).

Consideration of the item in the Sixth Committee

At the seventieth session, as set out in a letter from the Chair of the Sixth Committee (see A/C.5/70/9, annex), the Sixth Committee considered the legal aspects of the reports of the Secretary-General and of the Internal Justice Council on the administration of justice at the United Nations (A/70/187 and A/70/188, respectively), the report of the Secretary-General on the amendment to the rules of procedure of the United Nations Appeals Tribunal (A/70/189) and the report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Office of the United Nations Ombudsman and Mediation Services (A/70/151), and it drew the attention of the Fifth Committee to a number of specific issues relating to the legal aspects of those reports.

149. Administrative and budgetary aspects of the financing of the United Nations peacekeeping operations

Cross-cutting issues

At its resumed seventieth session, in June 2016, the General Assembly recalled its resolution 70/6 of 3 November 2015, took note of the report of the High-level Independent Panel on Peace Operations and the report of the Secretary-General entitled “The future of United Nations peace operations: implementation of the recommendations of the High-level Independent Panel on Peace Operations”, and requested the Secretary-General to include relevant information in the context of the next overview report (resolution 70/286).

At the same session, with regard to budget presentation and financial management, the General Assembly welcomed the new format for the presentation of the report of the Secretary-General on the overview of the financing of the United Nations peacekeeping operations, encouraged further positive developments in that regard and reiterated its request that budget data be provided in a tabular, editable format in order to enhance the transparency of the budget document. The Assembly stressed the importance of further steps by the Secretary-General towards improving budget presentations and making more accurate forecasts, requested the Secretary-General to ensure that the results-based budget framework adequately permitted consideration of each mission’s progress towards achieving mandated tasks and its effective use of resources, with full regard to accountability and the changing mandate of the mission, and also requested the Secretary-General to report on improvements that had been made in the budget preparation and presentation as a result of the implementation of Umoja and the International Public Sector Accounting Standards in the next overview report (resolution 70/286, sect. I).

At the same session, with regard to personnel issues, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to improve the ratio of substantive to support staff, with particular attention to the feasibility of nationalizing functions, especially Field Service-level functions, to ensure that the civilian staffing structure was appropriate for the effective implementation of the current mission mandate and that it reflected staffing best practices across other missions. The Assembly stressed the importance of leadership development at all staff levels, regular performance management for senior leadership and strengthened accountability, and requested the Secretary-General to continue efforts in that regard and to report on those activities in the context of the overview report. The Assembly urged the Secretary-General to make every effort to reduce the recruitment lead time for staff in field missions, taking into account the relevant provisions governing recruitment of United Nations staff, to enhance the transparency of the staffing process at all stages and to report on the steps taken and results achieved in the context of the next overview report. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to intensify his efforts to ensure proper representation of troop-contributing countries in the Department of Peacekeeping Operations and the Department of Field Support, taking into account their contribution to United Nations peacekeeping, and to report thereon in the context of his next overview report. The Assembly also requested the Secretary-General to ensure that senior gender advisers in all United Nations peacekeeping operations report directly to mission leadership and to intensify efforts to recruit and retain women in peacekeeping operations, and in particular to appoint women to senior United Nations leadership positions, with full respect for the principle of equitable geographical distribution, in conformity with Article 101 of the Charter of the United Nations, considering, in particular, women from troop- and police-contributing countries. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to report on measures taken to expand the participation of women in peacekeeping operations and make further recommendations to increase the number of uniformed and civilian women in peacekeeping operations, taking into account facilities and services to facilitate their deployment, in the context of the next overview report. The Assembly recalled paragraph 14 of section II of its resolution 63/250 of 24 December 2008 and paragraph 107 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (A/70/742), and in that regard requested the Secretary-General, in the context of the next report on human resources management, to provide detailed analysis of the financial implications and justification for the proposed expansion of the maximum duration of temporary duty assignments to meet requirements directly linked to a mission start-up or expansion owing to a crisis situation, and also requested the Secretary-General, in the context of the next overview report, to provide the same detailed analysis, with financial implications and justification, of the extension of the duration of the engagement of retired staff. The Assembly expressed deep concern about delays in the settlement of claims in respect of death and disability, and requested the Secretary-General to take urgent measures to eliminate the existing backlog of death and disability claims pending for more than three months and to report on the progress made to the Assembly at its seventy-first session (resolution 70/286, sect. II).

Also at the same session, regarding operational requirements, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to reduce the overall environmental footprint of each peacekeeping mission and to strengthen capacity and standards with regard to the 10-1-2 casualty response and to continue to develop innovative solutions in that regard. The Assembly recognized the use of new, innovative techniques for the detection of mines, explosives and weapons in some parts of the world and requested the Secretary-General to report on the possible application of such techniques for demining activities in peacekeeping operations in the context of the next overview report. The Assembly also recognized the contribution of unmanned aerial systems to mandate delivery, stressed the need to address challenges facing the deployment and utilization of such systems in individual peacekeeping missions and requested the Secretary-General to ensure the security of information and communications in missions, including those gathered from the use of unmanned aerial systems, as a matter of priority. The Assembly reaffirmed its request to the Secretary-General to ensure consistency, transparency and cost-efficiency in the budgeting for unmanned aerial systems in individual peacekeeping operation budget proposals and to include comprehensive information, including on lessons learned from the utilization of unmanned aerial systems in United Nations peacekeeping operations, in his next overview report. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to report on the efforts undertaken to ensure that the procurement of unmanned aerial systems from commercial providers complied with the United Nations Procurement Manual, and recalled its requests to the Secretary-General that he ensure that reimbursement of such systems provided by troop-contributing countries was consistent with the framework set out in the Contingent-Owned Equipment Manual and to submit to the next Working Group on Contingent-Owned Equipment an issue paper to clarify the current reimbursement arrangements for unmanned aerial systems provided by troop-contributing countries. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to expedite the completion of the assessment of the roles and responsibilities of the Air Transportation Section, the Strategic Air Operations Centre and the Transportation and Movements Integrated Control Centre and to make comprehensive proposals thereon in the context of the next overview report. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to continue to review and optimize the composition of mission vehicle fleets and ensure that the vehicles were fit for purpose and to submit a cost-benefit analysis outlining, inter alia, the type, quality, efficiency, maintenance cost and environmental impact of vehicle adjustments. The Assembly also requested the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to ensure that accommodation provided by the United Nations for uniformed and civilian personnel serving in peacekeeping operations met the relevant United Nations standards and further requested that the Secretary-General present, in individual mission budget proposals, a clear vision of the annual construction requirements. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to strengthen oversight and internal controls in the areas of procurement and asset management and reiterated its request that the Secretary-General continue to explore additional innovative ways to promote procurement from developing countries and countries with economies in transition. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to make full use of the Regional Procurement Office in Entebbe, Uganda, for procurement in the field and to continue to consider measures to be implemented to strengthen the security of air crews working under contracts with the United Nations. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to include, in the next overview report, comprehensive information relating to the advancement of technology projects across peacekeeping operations, including a cost-benefit analysis and to provide qualitative and quantitative information on the efficiency gains resulting from reform initiatives, including Umoja and the International Public Sector Accounting Standards. The Assembly requested that the Secretary-General continue to implement network intrusion detection and incident management software covering all missions and to continue to undertake information security awareness efforts in all missions and departments and to submit a comprehensive report on the implementation to date of the O3b pilot project, along with a thorough cost-benefit analysis and business case for future proposals, in the next overview report. The Assembly also requested the Secretary-General to ensure that any initiatives related to field support and service delivery improvements take into account lessons learned and best practices from other Secretariat initiatives so as to maximize benefits and avoid possible duplication and overlap, to ensure that Member States were provided with comprehensive and factual information to ensure that the benefits of the implementation of initiatives in the post-global field support strategy period were fully realized and to develop a cost-benefit analysis methodology, including benefits realization plans, that could be empirically verified to provide assurance regarding the benefits that have accrued or were expected to accrue as a result of the implementation of the global field support strategy and to provide follow-up information on the matter in the next overview report. The Assembly took note of the progress in the implementation of the supply chain management project and decided that any changes in the organizational structures, roles and functions of the Department of Field Support, the Global Service Centre, the Regional Service Centre in Entebbe, Uganda, and field missions attributed to that project should be submitted to the Assembly for its consideration and approval. The Assembly reiterated its request that the Secretary-General develop scalability models for the support account for peacekeeping operations and the United Nations Logistics Base at Brindisi, Italy, and to report thereon in the context of the next overview. Recognizing that the inclusion of programmatic funds in mission budgets on a case-by-case basis was intended to support the effective implementation of mandated tasks, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to clearly and consistently present the cost of such activities when they were included in future mission budgets and to provide information on programmatic funding, including the scope, criteria, governance and accounting procedures, in the context of his next overview report (resolution 70/286, sect. III).

Also at its resumed seventieth session, with regard to special measures for protection from sexual exploitation and sexual abuse, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General, in the next report, to provide information on the results achieved and challenges encountered to fully implement the United Nations policy of zero tolerance of sexual exploitation and abuse. The Assembly welcomed the appointment of the Special Coordinator on Improving the United Nations Response to Sexual Exploitation and Abuse and requested the Secretary-General to regularly update Member States on progress with respect to her mandate. Reiterating the importance of further improving the collaboration between the Secretary-General and the troop- and police-contributing countries with regard to allegations of sexual exploitation and sexual abuse, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to immediately inform the Member States concerned about allegations of sexual exploitation and abuse, of which United Nations entities might become aware, in missions operating under a Security Council mandate, and requested the Secretary-General to ensure that the Member States concerned received all available information to allow for appropriate follow-up by their national authorities. The Assembly stressed the importance of training all personnel in the prevention of sexual exploitation and sexual abuse as part of the predeployment training as well as in mission training and awareness-raising programmes, and requested the Secretary-General to expedite the deployment of the e-learning programme. The Assembly recalled paragraph 48 of its resolution 69/307 and requested that the report of an independent review on sexual exploitation and abuse by international peacekeeping forces in the Central African Republic be made available to the Assembly no later than at the main part of its seventy-first session. The Assembly noted with concern the findings in the independent review, including on the flaws of the United Nations system response, and requested the Secretary-General to report on lessons learned and measures to improve the system-wide response to allegations of sexual exploitation and abuse and to uphold the highest standards of transparency, efficiency and accountability (resolution 70/286, sect. IV).

Financing of the United Nations Logistics Base at Brindisi, Italy

At its resumed seventieth session, in June 2016, the General Assembly approved the cost estimates for the United Nations Logistics Base at Brindisi, Italy, amounting to $82,857,800 for the period from 1 July 2016 to 30 June 2017; decided on the financing of the requirements for the United Nations Logistics Base for the same period; and also decided to consider at its seventy-first session the question of the financing of the United Nations Logistics Base (resolution 70/288).

Closed peacekeeping missions

At its resumed seventieth session, in June 2016, under the item entitled “Review of the efficiency of the administrative and financial functioning of the United Nations”, the General Assembly decided to defer until the second part of its resumed seventy-first session consideration of the reports of the Secretary-General on the updated financial position of closed peacekeeping missions as at 30 June 2011 (A/66/665), 30 June 2012 (A/67/739), 30 June 2013 (A/68/666), 30 June 2014 (A/69/659) and 30 June 2015 (A/70/552) and the related reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (A/66/713 and Corr.1, A/67/837, A/68/837, A/69/827 and A/70/829, respectively) (decision 70/553 C).

Support account for peacekeeping operations

At its forty-fifth session, in 1991, the General Assembly established the support account for peacekeeping operations, effective 1 January 1990 (resolution 45/258); it became operational on 1 May 1990.

At its resumed seventieth session, in June 2016, the General Assembly reaffirmed its role in carrying out a thorough analysis and approval of human and financial resources and policies with a view to ensuring the full, effective and efficient implementation of all mandated programmes and activities and the implementation of policies in that regard; also reaffirmed that the Fifth Committee was the appropriate Main Committee of the Assembly entrusted with responsibility for administrative and budgetary matters; reaffirmed that the support account funds should be used for the sole purpose of financing human resources and non-human resource requirements for backstopping and supporting peacekeeping operations at Headquarters, and that any changes in that limitation required the prior approval of the Assembly; reaffirmed the need for adequate funding for backstopping of peacekeeping operations, as well as the need for full justification for that funding in support account budget submissions; and reaffirmed the need for effective and efficient administration and financial management of peacekeeping operations, urging the Secretary-General to continue to identify measures to increase the productivity and efficiency of the support account. The Assembly emphasized that support functions should be scalable to the number, size and scope of peacekeeping operations and in that regard requested the Secretary-General to present, at the second part of its resumed seventy-second session, a comprehensive review of the support account to ensure that the support account broadly corresponded to the evolving mandate, number, size and complexity of peacekeeping missions and to the implementation of organizational transformation initiatives. The Assembly noted with concern the continued upward shift in the grade structure of the United Nations Secretariat. The Assembly encouraged the Secretary-General to strengthen collaboration between the Department of Peacekeeping Operations, the Department of Field Support and the Department of Public Information to promote the peacekeeping activities of the Organization. The Assembly requested the Secretary-General to undertake a comprehensive review of the United Nations Office to the African Union and to submit his proposals for consideration by the Assembly no later than during the main part of its seventy-first session. The Assembly reaffirmed that the use of external consultants should be kept to an absolute minimum and their services used only when necessary and stressed the need for using the in-house capacity of the Organization to perform core activities or to fulfil functions that were recurrent over the long term. The Assembly approved the support account requirements in the amount of $327,380,300 for the financial period from 1 July 2016 to 30 June 2017, inclusive of the amount of $16,830,400 for the enterprise resource planning project and $821,500 for information and systems security, including 1,341 continuing posts and 28 new temporary posts, as well as the abolishment, redeployment, reassignment and reclassification of posts, as set out in annex I to the resolution, 97 continuing and 7 new general temporary assistance positions and 41 person-months, as set out in annex II to the resolution, as well as related post and non-post requirements, and decided on the financing of the requirements for the support account for the same period (resolution 70/287).

The Assembly decided that the requirements for the Regional Service Centre for the period from 1 July 2016 to 30 June 2017 should be financed by prorating the amount of $38,462,200 among the budgets of the active client peacekeeping operations for the period from 1 July 2016 to 30 June 2017; and by charging the amount of $741,400 against the appropriation under section 3, Political affairs, of the programme budget for the biennium 2016-2017, as approved by the Assembly in its resolutions 70/249 A-C of 23 December 2015 (resolution 70/289).

153. Financing of the United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus

By its resolution 186 (1964), the Security Council recommended the creation of a United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus (UNFICYP) and that the Force be stationed for three months, with a mandate to use its best efforts to prevent a recurrence of fighting and, as necessary, to contribute to the maintenance and restoration of law and order and a return to normal conditions. Since then, the Council has periodically extended the mandate of UNFICYP, usually for periods of six months at a time, the latest extension of which was by resolution 2300 (2016) of 26 July 2016, for a further period ending on 31 January 2017.

Prior to 16 June 1993, the Secretary-General was not authorized to utilize any funds other than voluntary contributions pledged by Member States for the financing of UNFICYP. Pursuant to Security Council resolution 831 (1993), the General Assembly, in its resolution 47/236, decided that, beginning 16 June 1993, the costs of UNFICYP that were not covered by voluntary contributions should be treated as expenses of the Organization to be borne by Member States, in accordance with Article 17, paragraph 2, of the Charter of the United Nations.

At its resumed seventieth session, in June 2016, the General Assembly appropriated to the Special Account for UNFICYP the amount of $57,810,300 for the period from 1 July 2016 to 30 June 2017, inclusive of $54,849,900 for the maintenance of the Force, $2,382,000 for the support account for peacekeeping operations and $578,400 for the United Nations Logistics Base at Brindisi, Italy; noted with appreciation that a one-third share of the net appropriation, equivalent to $18,440,733, would be funded through voluntary contributions from the Government of Cyprus and the amount of $6.5 million from the Government of Greece; apportioned among Member States the amount of $2,739,131 for the period from 1 to 31 July 2016; decided that there should be set off against the apportionment among Member States their respective share in the Tax Equalization Fund of $207,341; apportioned among Member States the amount of $30,130,436 for the period from 1 August 2016 to 30 June 2017, at a monthly rate of $2,739,131, subject to a decision of the Security Council to extend the mandate of the Force; decided that there should be set off against the apportionment among Member States their respective share in the Tax Equalization Fund of $2,280,759; also decided that the decrease of $140,400 in the estimated staff assessment income in respect of the financial period ended 30 June 2015 should be set off against the credits from the unencumbered balance and other income in the amount of $3,096,272; further decided, taking into account its voluntary contribution for the financial period ended 30 June 2015, that one third of the net unencumbered balance and other income in the amount of $1,849,433 in respect of the financial period ended 30 June 2015 should be returned to the Government of Cyprus; decided, taking into account its voluntary contribution for the financial period ended 30 June 2015, that the prorated share of the net unencumbered balance and other income in the amount of $602,595 in respect of the financial period ended 30 June 2015 should be returned to the Government of Greece; and also decided to continue to maintain as separate the account established for UNFICYP for the period prior to 16 June 1993 (resolution 70/273).
