Report submitted by Finland to the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1718 (2006) on the measures taken to implement resolution 2270 (2016)

Finland has taken the following steps in order to effectively implement Security Council resolution 2270 (2016).

Measures adopted by the European Union

Finland and the other Member States of the European Union have jointly implemented the sanctions against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea imposed by the Security Council in its resolution 2270 (2016) by taking the following common measures:

- Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/319 of 4 March 2016 (Official Journal of the European Union, 'OJ', L 60, 5.3.2016, p. 78) and Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) 2016/315 of 4 March 2016 (OJ, L 60, 5.3.2016, p. 62), implementing the designation of additional persons and entities (travel ban and asset freeze).
- Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/476 of 31 March 2016 (OJ, L 85, 1.4.2016, p. 38) provides the basis for the implementation of measures imposed by resolution 2270 (2016), notably:

  - Prohibition of the procurement from the Democratic People's Republic of Korea of coal, iron, iron ore, gold, titanium ore, vanadium ore and rare earth minerals;

  - Obligation to close existing representative offices, subsidiaries and banking accounts of EU financial institutions in the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea within 90 days if there is credible information that provides reasonable grounds to believe that such financial services could contribute to the activities of the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea prohibited by Security Council resolutions;
  - Extension of the prohibition to provide financial support for trade with the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea.
- Council Regulation (EU) 2016/682 of 29 April 2016 (OJ L 117, 3.5.2016, p. 1) amending Council Regulation (EC) No. 329/2007 (OJ L 88, 29.3.2007, p. 11)

provides for the implementation of the above measures falling within the scope of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

Certain provisions of resolution 2270 (2016) were already covered by the EU legislation in force, and hence did not require additional implementing measures. These provisions are referred to in the recitals of Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/476 for clarity.

Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/1341 (OJ, L 212, 5.8.2016, p. 116) and Council Regulation (EU) 2016/1333 (OJ, L 212, 5.8.2016, p. 1) of 4 August 2016 provide the basis for the implementation of the list of items, materials, equipment, goods and technology related to weapons of mass destruction-related items and identified and designated as sensitive goods pursuant to resolution 2270 (2016) (S/2016/308).

Furthermore, the European Union imposed additional restrictive measures against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea. These measures are provided for in Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/849 and Council Regulation (EU) 2016/841 of 27 May 2016.

National implementing measures

The above-mentioned EU Council Regulations are binding in their entirety and directly applicable in all Member States of the European Union. Regulation (EC) No. 329/2007 concerning restrictive measures against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea requires Member States to determine the penalties applicable to infringements of its provisions.

At the national level, sanctions are enforced by virtue of the Act on the Enforcement of Certain Obligations of Finland as a member of the United Nations and of the European Union (Sanctions Act, No. 659/1967). The Sanctions Act together with the Criminal Code (No. 39/1889) provide for the penalties and forfeitures to be imposed for violations of EU Council Regulations.

According to chapter 46, section 1 (9), of the Criminal Code, a person who violates or attempts to violate a regulatory provision contained or issued on the basis of an EU Council Regulation on restrictive measures, shall be sentenced for a regulation offence to a fine or to imprisonment for at most two years. Pursuant to Chapter 46, Section 2 of the Criminal Code, the penalty for an aggravated regulation offence is at least four months and at most four years of imprisonment. Pursuant to chapter 46, section 3, of the Criminal Code, when the regulation offence is deemed petty, the offender shall be sentenced for a petty regulation offence to a fine.

The arms embargoes imposed by Security Council resolutions and EU Council Decisions are implemented at the national level by virtue of the Act on the Export of Defence Materiel (No. 282/2012). This legislation applies to all goods included in the Common Military List of the European Union (OJ, C 129, 21.4.2015, p. 1). The export of arms and related materiel and the provision of brokering services and other services related to military activities is subject to a specific authorization. Authorization will not be granted for the export of defence materiel to any country that is subject to arms embargo unless grounds for exemption exist for the type of export in question as provided by a Security Council resolution or EU Council Decision.

According to chapter 46, section 11, of the Criminal Code, violation or attempted violation of the authorization scheme referred to in the Act on the Export of Defence Materiel is punishable as a defence supplies export offence. The offender shall be fined or imprisoned for a maximum period of four years.

The Aliens Act (No. 301/2004) regulates the requirements concerning admission into Finland and visa issuance. The Aliens Act, together with Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/849 and Regulation (EC) No. 539/2001 of 15 March 2001, as amended, provides the basis for the refusal of admission and the denial of applications for visa concerning persons subject to travel ban.

Responsibility for the enforcement of EU restrictive measures is divided among the relevant national authorities. For example, the freezing of funds of a natural or legal person designated in a Council Regulation is executed by the bailiff at the request of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs. Other competent authorities include, inter alia, the National Bureau of Investigation, the Finnish Border Guard and Finnish Customs.
